On June 11, 2013, Respondent Corecia J. Woo filed a motion for relief from disciplinary costs or in the alternative an extension of time to pay the disciplinary costs owed in the above-listed matters. Respondent's motion was based in part on financial hardship. On June 21, 2013, the Office of the Chief Trial Counsel of the State Bar of California filed a response to the motion.

After consideration of the parties' moving papers, the court DENIES the motion for relief from disciplinary costs and GRANTS the motion for extension of time to comply with the order to pay disciplinary costs. The court orders that petitioner's time to pay the remaining disciplinary costs associated with the above listed matters be extended. Respondent must pay one-third of her disciplinary costs along with her State Bar membership fees over the next three years (2014, 2015, and 2016). The payment of costs remains enforceable both as provided in Business and Professions Code section 6140.7 and as a money judgment.
